RTI One-Year Limited Warranty

(Applies only to equipment owned and operated in North America)

During the One-Year Warranty period, RTI Technologies, Inc. (RTI) is solely responsible for costs associated with parts and labor for repairs needed due to defects in material and/or workmanship. RTI is not responsible for the costs associated with repairs needed due to improper use or a lack of normal maintenance. RTI's goal is to provide a timely turn-around of the covered product requiring warranty repair.

The Customer is responsible to ASSIST AND PARTICIPATE with RTI Technical Support in the over-the-phone diagnosis process of:

- A) Determining that a legitimate failure has occurred and that the complaint is not just the result of inadequate training and/or improper use that could be easily remedied by over-the-phone instructions.
- B) Determining the nature of the failure and that it is reasonable for RTI Technical Support to judge over the phone that the failure is warrantable.
- C) Determining the parts necessary to make the repairs so that those parts can be shipped via the appropriate expedited method at the expense of RTI if the failure is warrantable.

During the One Year Warranty period for failures that are deemed by RTI to be warrantable, RTI is solely responsible for providing Field Repair Service within a reasonable period of time after a warrantable failure is reported. Field Repair Service is generally available in all areas within 150 miles of major metropolitan areas of the US. A reasonable period of time will depend on the location of the customer and the time of the year. RTI maintains a large network of Service Providers in the US. When Field Repair Service is needed, in most locations near a major US metropolitan area, and during most times of the year, a reasonable period of time for Field Service is 24 to 48 hours after parts are received by the Customer.

Since repair parts from RTI will normally arrive 24 to 48 hours after the Customer reports a failure, the Customer may at his sole option and discretion, choose to make the necessary repairs, with over-the-phone support from RTI Technical Support so as to minimize downtime. In such case, RTI will compensate the Customer or the Customer's employee as appropriate for the time necessary to make repairs if the failure is covered by warranty.

It is the Customer's responsibility to maintain the RTI Equipment according to instructions in the RTI Operation Manual for the covered product as well as to operate the equipment in a commercially reasonable manner as generally described in the RTI Operation Manual. RTI provides free Technical Support over toll-free telephone lines in the US to assist the customer in this regard for the life of the covered product.

The Customer should review the legal Warranty Disclaimer for more details of coverage and limitations.

Ancillary accessories such as Refrigerant Identifiers, Leak Detector Lights and Leak Detectors must be returned to RTI for repair or replacement with a new or refurbished unit, at RTI's sole discretion, in case of a warrantable defect.

USE THE DFX-1 ONLY WITH DIFFERENTIAL FLUIDS

The state-of-the-art DFX-1 was designed and tested by RTI to perform differential fluid exchanges. This involved extensive compatibility testing of the two pumps.

Many brands of differential fluids were successfully tested.

Recently there have been some pumps on other equipment which failed and when returned to the factory were found to have seals which had swelled and softened. This clearly indicates that some fluid other than that for which the equipment was designed are being extracted.

The most likely fluid which may have been extracted is brake fluid. This fluid will definitely cause the seals to swell as was observed in the returned pumps.

The RTI warranty for the DFX-1 is voided if any fluid other than differential fluids are used.

If a DFX-1 under warranty is diagnosed by our Technical Support Group as having a malfunctioning pump - a replacement pump must be purchased. The defective pump may be returned to RTI for analysis and the purchase price will be refunded if a manufacturing defect is determined.

Service Bulletin

The PSX-1 and PSX-2 were designed and tested by RTI to perform power steering fluid exchanges. The testing procedure involved extensive compatibility testing of the internal seals of the two pumps.

Many brands of power steering fluid and power steering flush were successfully tested.

Recently there have been some pumps which failed and when returned to the factory were found to have seals which had swelled and softened. This clearly indicates that some fluid other than power steering fluid or power steering flush are being extracted by the PSX.

The most likely fluid which may have been extracted is brake fluid. This fluid will definitely cause the seals to swell as was observed in the returned pumps.

The RTI warranty for the PSX is voided if any fluids other than approved power steering or power steering flush are used.

RTI Five-Year Limited Warranty

(Applies only to equipment owned and operated in North America)

During the first two years of the warranty period, the standard terms, conditions and policies as defined in the RTI Two-Year Limited Warranty apply. Generally, this includes parts, freight and labor.

During the third, fourth and fifth years of the warranty period the standard terms, conditions and policies of the RTI Two-Year Limited Warranty continue to apply except as modified specifically below:

- 1) Coverage: For the third, fourth and fifth years of the warranty period, only parts and freight are covered. Labor and any delivery costs to transport the unit to and from a service center are not covered for the third, fourth and fifth years of the warranty period. RTI will, however, continue to offer free trouble-shooting and repair guidance through its Technical Support Department over toll-free telephone lines for the life of the product.
- 2) Maintenance: In order for the Five-Year Warranty to be effective, the customer is required to replace the filters at least once per year every year beginning in the second year of equipment operation. Proof of purchase and annual replacement of the filters will be required for the Five-Year Warranty to be effective. Failure to maintain the machine as prescribed herein will result in the Five-Year Warranty coverage being declared void.
- 3) Vacuum Pumps: There is no limitation on the coverage for replacement parts related to warrantable failures, except in the case of rotary vane vacuum pumps. A defective vacuum pump must be returned to RTI for repair or replacement with a new or refurbished unit, at RTI's sole discretion, in case of a warrantable defect.

This limitation is necessary for rotary vane vacuum pumps due to the possibility that a failure of the pump may be caused by improper operation or maintenance, specifically improper lubrication and/or lack of oil at some time during the life of the pump.

- 4) Registration of Warranty: The customer must contact RTI's Technical Support Department within 90 days of the date of delivery to verify that the Five-Year Warranty is registered, accepted and valid. Failure to register the warranty will result in the Five-Year Warranty being declared void.
- 5) General: It is the Customer's responsibility to maintain and operate the covered equipment in a commercially reasonable manner as generally described in the RTI Operation Manual. RTI provides free Technical Support over toll-free telephone lines in the US to assist the customer in this regard for the life of the covered product. The Customer should review the One Year Limited Warranty, Two Year Limited Warranty and Warranty Disclaimer for more details of coverage and limitations. The Two-Year Warranty is an extension of the standard One-Year Warranty as defined. The Five-Year Warranty is an extension of the Two-Year Warranty.

RTI warrants to the original Purchaser the NitroPro to be free from defects in materials and workmanship as follows:

Year One - RTI is responsible for costs associated with parts and labor for repairs needed because of defects in material and/or workmanship. RTI is not responsible for costs associated with repairs needed because of improper use or a lack of normal maintenance. The goal of RTI is to provide a timely turn-around of the covered product requiring warranty repair.

Year Two through Year Five - RTI is responsible for costs associated with parts only for repairs needed because of defects in material and/or workmanship. See special warranty conditions below for the Nitrogen Membrane.

The Purchaser must participate and assist RTI Technical Support during an over-the-phone diagnosis process of:

- A) Determining that a legitimate failure has occurred and that the complaint is not just the result of inadequate training and/or improper use that could be easily remedied by over-the-phone instructions.
- B) Determining the nature of the failure and that it is reasonable for RTI Technical Support to judge over the phone that the failure is warrantable.
- C) Determining the parts necessary to make the repairs so that those parts can be shipped via the appropriate expedited method at the expense of RTI if the failure is warrantable.

During the One Year Warranty period, RTI is solely responsible for providing Field Repair Service when appropriate within a reasonable period of time after a warrantable failure is determined. Field Repair Service is generally available in all areas within 150 miles of major metropolitan areas in the USA. A reasonable period of time will depend on the location of the Purchaser and the time of the year. RTI maintains a large network of Service Providers in the USA. When Field Repair Service is needed, in most locations near a major USA metropolitan area, and during most times of the year, a reasonable period of time for Field Service is 24 to 48 hours after parts are received by the Purchaser.

Since repair parts from RTI will normally arrive 24 to 48 hours after the Purchaser reports a failure, the Purchaser may at his sole option and discretion, choose to make the necessary repairs, with over-the-phone support from RTI Technical Support so as to minimize downtime. Warranty of Nitrogen Membrane

RTI specifically warrants to the original Purchaser the Nitrogen Membrane in the NitroPro to be free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of five years. To maintain this warranty, filters must be replaced annually or sooner if indicator on water filter moves into the red area. Failure to change filters as indicated will void the warranty and may destroy the Nitrogen Membrane. Proof of filter replacement according to RTI's recommendations is required; replacement filter kits provided by RTI will contain a serialized label which should be applied to the maintenance log on the unit as proof of proper filter maintenance. Purchaser is responsible for the purchase and installation of any replacement membrane, as well as return of the original membrane to RTI for evaluation. Upon inspection, if it is confirmed that the failure is due to a defect in materials or workmanship and not improper use or lack of proper maintenance, RTI will reimburse Purchaser for the price paid for the replacement membrane.

The NitroPro Purity Tester is warranted for one year only. A defective unit must be returned to RTI for repair or replacement. During the first 30 days, a new Purity Tester will be sent to the Purchaser in exchange for the return of the defective unit to RTI.
